

Ginger Norman

Contributed by Mandy

Though initially a seemingly nice guy, Ginger Norman would start to smoke like a chimney as soon as we left any bar/restaurant despite fooling me into thinking he was sporty with claims of training for a triathlon. But his worst crime was... he never kissed, didn't even try to - HOW RUDE! But then he would have had stale smelling breath anyway and my lips deserve more than that! A few months after I found out he'd been made redundant - a real shame...no do really I mean that...
blah blah blah
